5 Limited liability

The liability of the Members is limited to £1, being the amount each Member undertakes to contribute to the Charity's assets if the Charity shall be wound up while he, she or it is a Member, or within one year after he she or it ceases to be a Member, for payment of the Charity's debts and liabilities contracted before he, she or it ceases to be a Member and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

6 Membership

- 6.1 The number of Members shall be not less than three and not more than thirteen.
- 6.2 The Charity must maintain a register of Members.
- 6.3 The Members are the persons who hold office as Trustees for the time being under these Articles and no person shall be admitted as a Member other than a Trustee.
- 6.4 A person shall automatically cease to be a Member when he or she ceases to be a Trustee and his or her name shall be removed from the register of Members. No person may withdraw from membership except on ceasing to be a Trustee.
- 6.5 Membership of the Charity is not transferable.
- 6.6 The Trustees may admit such persons as they see fit as associate members in accordance with any criteria or rules set out by the Trustees from time to time, provided that associate members shall not be members of the Charity for the purposes of the Act and accordingly such membership shall not bestow upon any associate member the right to attend or vote on any matter at any general meeting of the Charity.

7 General meetings

- 7.1 An annual general meeting must be held in each calendar year and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between successive annual general meetings.

7.2 A general meeting may be called at any time by the Trustees and must be called in accordance with the terms of the Act within 21 days of a written request from Members holding at least 5% of the total voting rights of Members having the right to vote at general meetings.

7.3 Members are entitled to attend general meetings either personally or by proxy.

7.4 An annual general meeting shall be called on at least 21 clear days' notice and any other general meeting shall be called on at least 14 clear days' written notice in each case specifying the business to be discussed. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

7.5 Quorum

7.5.1 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present.

7.5.2 A quorum at a general meeting is:

(a) three of the Members entitled to attend and vote at that meeting present in person or by proxy; or

(b) the number nearest to one-half of the total membership at the time, rounding down to the nearest whole number whichever shall be the greater.

7.5.3 If within 15 minutes from the time appointed for the holding of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting will be adjourned to such other day and at such time as the Board may determine. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within 15 minutes from the time appointed for holding the meeting the Members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.

7.6 Chair

The Chair or (if the Chair is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Trustee elected by those present shall preside as chair at a general meeting. The Chair may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall if so directed by the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place as the Chair shall determine.

7.7 Voting

7.7.1 A resolution put to the vote of a meeting will be decided on a show of hands unless before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is demanded by:

(a) the Chair;

(b) at least five Members entitled to vote on the resolution present in person or by proxy; or

(c) a Member or Members representing at least ten percent of the total voting rights of all of the Members entitled to vote on the resolution present in person or by proxy.

7.7.2 Unless a poll is duly demanded a declaration by the Chair that a resolution has been carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

- 7.7.3 The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the Chair and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 7.7.4 A poll shall be taken as the Chair directs. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 7.7.5 A poll demanded on the election of a Chair or on a question of adjournment will be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question will be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the Chair directs not being more than 30 days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll will not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting will continue as if the demand had never been made.
- 7.7.6 No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
- 7.7.7 Except for the Chair of the meeting, who in the event of an equality of votes has a second or casting vote. On a show of hands or a poll every Member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote.
- 7.7.8 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid. Any such objection must be referred to the Chair of the meeting whose decision is final.

7.8 Proxy notices

- 7.8.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a proxy notice) which:
- (a) states the name and address of the Member appointing the proxy;
 - (b) identifies the person appointed to be that Member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - (c) is signed by or on behalf of the Member appointing the proxy or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and
 - (d) is delivered to the Charity in accordance with these Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.
- 7.8.2 The Charity may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
- 7.8.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- 7.8.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
- (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and

(b) by appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates, as well as to the meeting itself.

7.8.5 A person who is entitled to speak, attend or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Charity by or on behalf of that person.

7.8.6 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Charity a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

7.8.7 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

7.8.8 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

7.9 Written resolutions

A written resolution passed in accordance with the Act is as valid as a resolution actually passed at a general meeting (and for this purpose the written resolution may be set out in more than one document). A written resolution passed under this Article will lapse if not passed before the end of six calendar months beginning with the circulation date (as defined in section 290 of the Companies Act 2006).

8 Trustees

8.1 The Trustees are the company directors and charity trustees of the Charity and have control of the Charity and its property and funds.

8.2 The Board shall be composed of no fewer than three Trustees and not more than thirteen Trustees. On appointment as a Trustee, a Trustee shall automatically become a Member of the Charity.

8.3 From the adoption of these Articles, the existing Trustees shall continue to hold office on their existing terms.

8.4 Trustees shall be appointed to the Board by resolution of the Trustees. The Trustees may from time to time at their discretion determine any criteria for appointment as a Trustee.

8.5 Every Trustee shall sign a written consent to become a Trustee and a Member.

8.6 Subject to Articles 8.3 and 8.8, a Trustee shall retire at the first Trustees' meeting after the Trustee has held office for a term of three years. The retirement shall take place at the end of such Trustees' meeting.

8.7 After a Trustee has served for two consecutive terms in office, he or she shall be eligible for re-election only after a year has elapsed since he or she retired as Trustee, unless the Board considers it would be in the best interests of the Charity for a Trustee to be eligible for re-election on his or her retirement for a further term of office of up to three years. For these purposes, any period of office held prior to or at the time of the adoption of these Articles shall be disregarded.

8.8 A Trustee's term of office automatically terminates if:

- 8.8.1 he or she is disqualified under the Charities Act 2011 from acting as a charity trustee;
 - 8.8.2 a registered medical practitioner who is treating the Trustee gives a written opinion to the Trustees stating that he or she has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a Trustee and may remain so for more than three months;
 - 8.8.3 he or she is absent from two consecutive meetings of the Board without the consent of the Trustees and the Trustees resolve that his or her office is vacated;
 - 8.8.4 he or she is removed as a Trustee by the Members pursuant to the Act;
 - 8.8.5 he or she resigns by written notice to the Trustees (but only if at least three Trustees will remain in office);
 - 8.8.6 he or she becomes bankrupt, has an interim receiving order made against him or her, makes any arrangement or compounds with his or her creditors generally or applies to the court for an interim order in respect of a voluntary arrangement;
 - 8.8.7 he or she is convicted of an offence and the Trustees shall resolve that it is undesirable in the interests of the Charity that he or she remains a Trustee of the Charity;
 - 8.8.8 he or she ceases to be a Member of the Charity; or
 - 8.8.9 he or she is removed by unanimous resolution of the other Trustees if the other Trustees are satisfied that this is in the best interests of the Charity.
- 8.9 A technical defect in the appointment of a Trustee of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting of the Board.

9 Proceedings of the Board

- 9.1 The Trustees must hold at least four meetings of the Board each year. Any Trustee may call a meeting of the Board by giving notice of the meeting to the Trustees or by authorising the Secretary (if any) to give such notice provided that:
- 9.1.1 such notice must indicate the proposed date, time and location of the meeting and, if it is anticipated that Trustees participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting;
 - 9.1.2 such notice must be given to each Trustee, but need not be in writing; and
 - 9.1.3 such notice need not be given to Trustees who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting by giving notice to that effect to the Charity not more than seven days after the date on which the meeting is held (and where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it).
- 9.2 The quorum necessary at a meeting of the Board shall be determined by the Board and unless and until otherwise determined shall be three or the number nearest to one-half of the number of Trustees then in office (rounding down to the nearest whole number), whichever shall be greater.
- 9.3 If the total number of Trustees for the time being is less than the minimum number required by Article 8.2 or the quorum required, the Trustees must not take any decision other than a decision to appoint further Trustees provided always that in all other respects, the provisions of these Articles in relation to the calling of meetings of the Board shall be complied with.

- 9.4 A meeting of the Board may be held either in person or by suitable electronic means agreed by the Trustees in which all Trustees participating in the meeting may communicate with all the other participants. If all the Trustees participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.
- 9.5 The Chair or (if the Chair is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Trustee chosen by the Trustees present will preside as chair at each meeting.
- 9.6 Subject to Article 9.8, every decision of the Trustees shall be by a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting.
- 9.7 Every Trustee has one vote on each issue except for the Chair of the meeting, who in the event of an equality of votes has a second or casting vote (unless the Chair of the meeting is in accordance with these Articles not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes).

9.8 Decisions without a meeting

The Trustees may take a unanimous decision without holding a Trustees' meeting by indicating to each other by any means, including without limitation by electronic means, that they share a common view on a matter. Such decisions may, but need not, take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each Trustee or to which each Trustee has otherwise indicated agreement in writing. A decision made in accordance with this Article 9.8 shall be as valid and effectual as if it has been passed at a meeting duly convened and held, provided the following conditions are complied with:

- 9.8.1 approval from each Trustee must be received by the Chair, or if the Chair is unable or unwilling to do so, some other Trustee nominated in advance by the Trustees for that purpose (Recipient);
- 9.8.2 following receipt of the response from all of the Trustees, the Recipient shall communicate to all of the Trustees by any means whether the resolution has been formally approved by the Trustees in accordance with this Article 9.8;
- 9.8.3 the date of the decision shall be the date of the communication from the Recipient confirming formal approval; and
- 9.8.4 the Recipient prepares a minute of the decision and circulates it to the Trustees and the Secretary.
- 9.9 A procedural defect of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

10 Powers of Trustees

- 10.1 The Trustees have the following powers in the administration of the Charity:
- 10.1.1 at their absolute discretion, to appoint (and remove) any person or corporate entity (who may also be a Trustee) to act as Secretary to the Charity in accordance with the Act;
- 10.1.2 to appoint a Chair from among their number;
- 10.1.3 to appoint a treasurer, patron and other honorary offices;

- 10.1.4 to make standing orders consistent with these Articles and the Act to govern proceedings at general meetings;
 - 10.1.5 to make rules consistent with these Articles and the Act to govern proceedings at meetings of the Board and of committees;
 - 10.1.6 to make regulations consistent with these Articles and the Act to govern the administration of the Charity; and
 - 10.1.7 to exercise any powers of the Charity which are not reserved to a general meeting.
- 10.2 The Board of Trustees may by a simple majority resolution change the name of the Charity.

11 Delegation

- 11.1 Subject to these Articles, the Board may delegate any of the powers conferred on it by these Articles to such person, by such means, to such an extent, in relation to such matters and on such terms of reference as the Trustees think fit and, if the Board so specifies, any such delegation may authorise future delegation of the Trustees' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.
- 11.2 The Board may also delegate to any committee consisting of two or more individuals appointed by the Board any of its functions (including any powers or discretions) for such time and on such terms of reference as it thinks fit (including any requirement that a resolution of the committee shall not be effective unless a majority of those present when it is passed are Trustees or it is ratified by the Board) provided that:
- 11.2.1 at least one member of every committee must be a Trustee;
 - 11.2.2 all proceedings of every committee must be reported promptly to the Trustees;
 - 11.2.3 a resolution of a committee must be ratified by the Board if the Trustee or Trustees on the committee direct that such a requirement shall apply; and
 - 11.2.4 every committee must act in accordance with the terms of reference on which any function is delegated to it (but, subject to that, the proceedings of the committee will be governed by such of these Articles as regulate the proceedings of the Board so far as they are capable of applying).
- 11.3 The Board may at any time revoke any delegation in whole or part or alter its terms.

12 Benefits to Members and Trustees

- 12.1 The income and property of the Charity must only be applied to promote the Objects and no part of that income or property may be paid, transferred or applied by way of Benefit to any Trustee (either in his capacity as a Member or as a director and charity trustee of the Charity) except:
- 12.1.1 reasonable and proper premiums in respect of indemnity insurance provided in accordance with these Articles;
 - 12.1.2 reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including hotel and travel costs) properly incurred in the management and administration of the Charity;
 - 12.1.3 an indemnity in accordance with these Articles;
 - 12.1.4 payment to any company in which a Trustee has no more than a 1% shareholding; and 12.1.5 other payments or benefits permitted by charity law or with the prior consent of the Commission;

provided that the Trustees must comply with the provisions of Articles 13, 14 and 15 (declaration of Interests and authorisation of Conflicts of Interest) in relation to any Benefit provided by the Charity to any Trustee pursuant to this Article.

12.2 The income and property of the Charity must only be applied to promote the Objects and no part of that income or property may be paid, transferred or applied by way of Benefit to any Trustee (either in his capacity as a Member or as a director and charity trustee of the Charity) except:

12.2.1 interest at a reasonable rate on money lent to the Charity;

12.2.2 a reasonable rent or hiring fee for property let or hired to the Charity;

12.2.3 any Benefit provided to a Trustee in his or her capacity as a beneficiary of the Charity where the Benefit is no different from benefits provided to other beneficiaries;

12.2.4 in respect of the provision of goods or services in accordance with Article 13.4.

provided that the Trustees must comply with the provisions of Articles 13, 14 and 15 (declaration of Interests and authorisation of Conflicts of Interest) in relation to any Benefit provided by the Charity to any Trustee pursuant to this Article.

12.3 For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Article 12.3 shall prevent the Charity, in furtherance of the Objects, from conferring a Benefit on another charity of which a Trustee is a charity trustee or member, provided that it does not confer any Benefit on that Trustee.

12.4 Any Trustee may enter into a written contract with the Charity to supply goods or services to the Charity in return for a Benefit but only if:

12.4.1 the goods or services are actually required by the Charity;

12.4.2 the nature and level of the remuneration is no more than is reasonable in relation to the value of the goods or services supplied;

12.4.3 the Trustee has declared his or her Interest in accordance with Article 14 and the Trustees have complied with the procedure in Article 15.3;

12.4.4 no more than half of the Trustees are subject to or affected by such a contract in any financial year (and this provision will apply to a Trustee if this Article applies to a person who is Connected to that Trustee);

12.4.5 the services supplied are not services supplied by the Trustees in his or her capacity as a Trustee; and 12.4.6 the services supplied are not services supplied by the Trustee under a contract of employment.

provided that the Trustees must comply with the provisions of Articles 13, 14 and 15 (declaration of Interests and authorisation of Conflicts of Interest) in relation to any Benefit provided by the Charity to any Trustee pursuant to this Article.

12.5 A Trustee shall not receive a Benefit from any Subsidiary Company except in accordance with Articles 12.1 and 12.2 (which apply as if references to the Charity were references to the Subsidiary Company and references to the Articles were to the articles of association of the Subsidiary Company).

- 12.6 In this Article, references to a Trustee include references to any person who is Connected to that Trustee.
- 12.7 No change to this Article 12 that is a regulated alteration for the purposes of Section 198 of the Charities Act 2011 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision) may be made without the prior written consent of the Charity Commission.

13 Declaration of Interests

- 13.1 Every Trustee has a duty to declare to the Trustees the nature and extent of any Interest which he or she (or any Connected Person) has in any proposed or existing transaction or arrangement with the Charity or any situation or matter in relation to the Charity that is, or possibly may be, a Conflict of Interest.
- 13.2 In the case of any proposed transaction or arrangement with the Charity in which a Trustee (or any Connected Person) is Interested, he or she must declare the nature and extent of the Interest to the Trustees before the Charity enters into the transaction or arrangement.
- 13.3 In the case of any existing transaction or arrangement that has been entered into by the Charity or any situation or matter in relation to the Charity in which a Trustee (or any Connected Person) is Interested, he or she must declare the nature and extent of the Interest to the Trustees as soon as is reasonably practicable.
- 13.4 Any declaration must be made in accordance with the provisions of the Act:
- 13.4.1 at a meeting of the Board; or
 - 13.4.2 by notice in writing to the Trustees; or
 - 13.4.3 by general notice to the Trustees.
- 13.5 A Trustee is not required to declare an Interest:
- 13.5.1 where the Trustee is not aware of the Interest (but the Trustee is treated as being aware of matters of which he ought reasonably to be aware); or
 - 13.5.2 where the Trustee is not aware of the transaction or arrangement or situation or matter (but the Trustee is treated as being aware of matters of which he ought reasonably to be aware); or
 - 13.5.3 if, or to the extent that, the other Trustees are already aware of the Interest (or ought reasonably to be aware of the Interest).

14 Conflicts of Interest

- 14.1 Subject to Articles 14.2 and 15, a Trustee has a duty under the Act to avoid a situation or matter (including a transaction or arrangement with the Charity) in which he or she has, or can have, a Conflict of Interest. This duty applies to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity (and it is immaterial whether the Charity could take advantage of the property, information or opportunity).
- 14.2 Pursuant to section 181(3) of the Companies Act 2006, the duty referred to in Article 14.1 does not apply to a Conflict of Interest arising in relation to any situation or matter or any transaction or arrangement between the Charity and any Trustee which is mentioned in Article 12.1 of these Articles.

15 Authorisation of Conflicts of Interest

- 15.1 The Trustees may authorise a transaction or arrangement or situation or matter in which a Trustee (or any person Connected to that Trustee) has, or may have, a Conflict of Interest provided that:
- 15.1.1 the Conflict of Interest will not confer a Benefit on the Trustee or any Connected Person at the expense of the Charity to an extent greater than that permitted by Article 12 of these Articles;
 - 15.1.2 the Trustees act in what they consider to be the best interests of the Charity; and
 - 15.1.3 the Trustees comply with the procedures set out in this Article 15.
- 15.2 Whenever the Trustees must decide whether to give the authorisation in accordance with Article 15.1, the Trustee concerned must:
- 15.2.1 declare the nature and extent of his or her Interest at the beginning of any meeting at which the authorisation is to be discussed (or, at the latest, before such discussion begins);
 - 15.2.2 withdraw from that part of the meeting at which the authorisation is to be discussed unless expressly invited to remain in order to provide information;
 - 15.2.3 not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting during which the authorisation is discussed;
 - 15.2.4 withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the authorisation for that part of the meeting; and
